

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AURORA, CO, October 3, 2012 – Wilderdest Logistics Solutions, Inc. a leader in providing logistical and transportation services, today announced, it ranked 108th in ColoradoBiz magazine's 2012 Top 250 Private Companies in Colorado list, as published in its October 2012 issue. With revenue increases amongst all industries in Colorado, Wilderdest Logistics increased its ranking within the top 125 for the third consecutive year. Wilderdest Logistics attributes its growth in 2011 to innovative business strategies, and highly regarded customer service.

It's exciting to get results for our clients and then to see our growth recognized alongside the top businesses in Colorado," said Thomas Cagney, CEO of Wilderdest Logistics.

Wilderdest Logistics progressed up the list 2 spots from its 110th ranking in 2011. The company attributes its strength and performance over the past year to investment in complementary strategies. During a time when many businesses pulled back, Wilderdest Logistics continued to focus and invest on its customer service and diversifying its logistic solutions for its clients. All of this combined allowed Wilderdest Logistics to strengthen its organization and further develop solid enduring relationships with their customers.
